NEW BOSTON - Huron High School's 1968 Homecoming Queen was crowned following the Homecoming Parade in New Boston, last Thursday, Oct. 10.

Miss Cindy Robinson was pronounced Queen by Bryon Antcliff, Huron School District Superintendent, as the 1967 Homecoming Queen, Miss Carolyn Tipper placed the crown on her head.

The four young ladies of the court were also introduced by the Superintendent as they took their places on the platform.

The court consisted of Miss Irene Teem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Teem of Grix road; Miss Marcia Parkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Parkinson of Middlebelt road;

Miss Dawn Minges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Minges of Dickinson road; and Miss Pam Hinds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dowe Hinds of Middlebelt road.

QUEEN CINDY, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson of 37655 Pennsylvania road.

A crowd of 500 watched the parade along Huron River drive. Both Junior and Senior High Bands, the cheerleaders, Football Team and many imaginative floats and other entries passed in review.

Taking first place in the float contest was the Sophomore inspired float titled, "Mow 'em Down". Second place went to the Senior float, "Combination for Victory". Third place was won by the Juniors with their float "Toast to Vicotry". The Cheerleaders Float took fourth place.

Also part of the week-end of activities was the Homecoming Dance which was held in the Senior High Gymnasium, Saturday evening.

The theme was "18 Yellow Roses". The gym was transformed into a ballroom decked out in yellow roses for the event.

Increase in Enrollments Hit Van Buren School System

Student Count At Record High Use of Portable Classrooms Is Approved by School Board

BY HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

BELLEVILLE - A student enrollment, highest in the history of Van Buren Public School System, has been reported by Van Buren Township Board of Education.

The official student count now stands at 6,915. James Egan, business manager of Van Buren Public Schools, disclosed.

"It is the greatest number of students in any one school year and the highest in the history of the school district, he stated.

School officials have reported the record enrollment when submitted required student count information to the State Board of Education, Lansing, for state aid.

Deadline for the submission of such information to state officials was Sept. 27.

THE STUDENT increase is in elementary students and is mainly caused by the split-up of the former Sumpter School District among its four adjacent school districts, Egan said.

He also reported that the present "boom" in enrollment and foreseeable future enrollment gains is under study by the School Board.

The rise in students has created an urgent need for classroom space.

The School Board has approved the use of portable classrooms and adjusted other classroom facilities to make room for the new students.

State aid this year is slightly higher than last school year,

Egan said. It stands at about $233 per child.

AN INCREASE in property valuation in the school district for the current school year brings in a revenue gain but at the same time lessens the amount of school year, he stated.

No additional state aid will be forthcoming for students now coming in. School officials in addition will have to provide teachers and other personnel for the student increase.

Special Education classes have been moved from the Denton School to Sumpter Elementary School and initiating the use of a portable classroom will make available four classrooms for students coming into Denton School, Egan said.

Student enrollment problems that will soon develop from two very large dwelling developments expected to bring an anticipated 300 to 500 elementary students.

THESE DEVELOPMENTS are the 275-home Turtle Creek project, located west of Willow

FOLLOWING 'CONFLICT' CHARGE

Van Buren Board Sets Formal Complaint Rule

BELLEVILLE - Van Buren Township residents who may have major complaints with the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees will now have to submit their inquiries in writing a week before the next regularly scheduled Township Board meeting.

The Township Board's action was taken Oct. 8 when resolution requiring such procedure was approved.

Township trustees acted after newspapers published charges of possible conflict of interest against one of the trustees.

This trustee was accused of buying and then selling at a profit 66 acres of land to a land developer for a large residential subdivision (660 homes). An area resident made the charges at a Sept. 26 meeting.

Louis A. Toth, township supervisor, termed the inquiry by Mrs. Julia Sawmiller of 774 Sumpter Road "pure garbage."

He reported that he had requested copies of the documents at the September meeting and she had refused but promised to drop off a copy the next day. He said he has not seen her or received any copy since.

"None of us have seen these documents, yet she has given them to the newspapers. We have to take this step to protect ourselves," Toth said.

Joseph Hogan, trustee, stated: "This won't preclude regular questions and answers about regular business. People who want to come in and discuss such items may. We just want people who have serious complaints to submit their questions in writing in advance so that we can carry on our business effectively without having to worry about being clobbered over the head by this kind of muckraking."

Toth announced that the Board would "discuss" possible conflict of interest but not until Mrs. Sawmiller delivers copies of the documents to the Board.

Bill Ford Signs Fair Campaign Code

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman William D. Ford (D) 15th District this week signed the Code of Fair Campaign Practices, joining with other candidates in pledging to conduct his campaign solely on the basis of issues.

"I intend to conduct my campaign, as I have always done in the past, on the basic principles of decency, honesty and fair play," Congressman Ford said. "My supporters have been cautioned to refrain from any unfair practices during this campaign."

"By unfair practices, I am referring to whispering campaigns, false rumors, distortion of facts, anonymous leaflets, personal slanders, last-minute smears, and similar tactics," Congressman Ford said.

The Code of Fair Campaign Practices was drafted by the Fair Campaign Practices Committee, of Washington, a non-partisan organization devoted to elimination of unethical campaign methods.

THE CODE, which Congressman Ford has signed and returned to the Committee, contains the following pledges:

I shall conduct my campaign in the best American tradition, discussing the issues as I see them, presenting my record and policies with sincerity and frankness, and criticizing without fear or favor the record and policies of my opponent and his party which merit such criticism.

I shall defend and uphold the right of every qualified American voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process.

I shall condemn the use of personal vilification, character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or his personal or family life.

I shall condemn the use of campaign material of any sort which misrepresents, distorts, or otherwise falsifies the facts regarding any candidate, as well as the use of malicious or unfounded accusations against any candidate which aim at creating or exploiting doubts, without justification, as to his loyalty and patriotism.

I shall condemn any appeal to prejudice based on race, creed, or national origin.

I shall condemn any dishonest or unethical practice which tends to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections or which hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters.

I shall immediately and publicly repudiate support deriving from any individual or group which resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of my opponent, to the methods and tactics which I condemn.

Kiwanians Celebrate

ROMULUS — Romulus Kiwanians entertained their wives last Thursday at a special Ladies' Night dinner, on the occasion of the club's 12th anniversary.

President Frank Andrews presided at the business meeting.

A timely topic of vital interest to the citizens of Romulus Township was presented for discussion by John Rarick of the Romulus Homeowners Association. This topic concerned Romulus Township's becoming a city.

Rarick urged a "yes" vote on the proposal, if Romulus citizens do not wish to lose much tax money which is presently being paid by large industry, the airport, etc.

ROMULUS VOTERS, on Nov. 5, will have a chance to vote for nine members to serve on the Charter Commission. This group will study the matter and recommend the type of government that would best serve the people of Romulus Township. The final decision will then be made by the voters within a 2-year period.

A "yes" vote will give Romulus two years in which to decide what type of government the citizens want. ROMULUS DOES NOT BECOME A CITY OVERNIGHT, Rarick stated. During this two years, no part of Romulus Township could be annexed by other cities, bordering directly on Romulus Township.

A "no" vote will mean that certain Romulus industries or the Metro Airport could be taken over by bordering cities. Romulus then would lose much tax money income from these industries, etc.

The Romulus Homeowners Association would welcome all inquiries concerning this matter and urges support of the proposal.

Romulus Voting Lists Hit Record

ROMULUS — An all-time high in vote registration was reported by Romulus Township Clerk Alfred J. Perry.

The Township's vote roster now stands at 7,851, a gain of 1,400 new registrations over the previous high set before the August primary election.

Deadline for voting in the Nov. 5 general election was Oct. 4.

Although persons can still register, they cannot cast ballots in the Nov. 5 election but may do so in the next township election.

A VOTE registration drive was initiated in Romulus on Sept. 18. Five vote registration centers were set up in main sections of the township and the use of two mobile units, loaned to Local 600, UAW-CIO by the Belleville Mobile Homes, ere used in the Township, Perry said.

Perry commended the volunteer workers who manned the centers as deputy registrars and stated that they did a tremendous job in getting people to register.

The volunteers cited by the clerk and township officials are:

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Quasarno, Mrs. Priscilla Hawey, Mrs.

Romulus Board Supports New Sports Complex Need

ROMULUS — The Romulus Township Board of Trustees has announced its support for a new sports complex for the Detroit Metropolitan area.

Present sports facilities, namely Tiger Stadium, and Olympia, have been termed antiquated and lack sufficient seating capacity, rest rooms, office space, concession space, employee and management accommodations, Edmund Bizek, township supervisor, and board members stated in resolving assistance to a current stadium committee studying the problems and feasibility of a new sports complex.

The Township Board offered its support and assistance in the form of a resolution approved at the Township Board's meeting Oct. 7.

Township officials asked the Stadium Committee to give serious consideration to locating a new modern sports stadium in the Wayne out-county area.

THE CITY OF TAYLOR is presently endeavoring to locate the proposed sports stadium in Taylor.

Michigan State Fairgrounds is another location reported to be under study by Detroit and State officials.

The matter came before the Romulus Township Board when the City of Taylor requested a resolution of assistance in getting the sports stadium in Taylor. Romulus trustees in approving the resolution of support requested consideration by the Stadium Committee of locating the stadium in a Wayne out-county area including Romulus Township. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Detroit Metropolitan area has always been known as very sports-minded, and has enthusiastically supported baseball, football, hockey, basketball, etc., and

WHEREAS, the present sports facilities, i.e., Tiger Stadium and Olympia, are antiquated, and lack sufficient seating capacity, rest rooms, office space, concession space, employee and management accommodations, and

WHEREAS, these same present sports facilities are located in tough neighborhoods, where mugging, robberies, fights and a complete lack of parking facilities have kept sports fans away, and

WHEREAS, the City of Detroit has been unsuccessful in getting the Olympics to come here, because of the lack of suitable facilities, and

WHEREAS, there is presently a Stadium Committee studying these problems and the feasibility of building a new sports complex,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Romulus Township stands ready and able to assist the Stadium Committee in any way possible, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Stadium Committee give serious consideration to locating a new modern sports stadium in the Wayne out-county area.

PHONE BOOTH HANDSHAKER — When Vice-President Hubert H. Humphrey landed at nearby Metro Airport last weekend and stepped from the airplane, a long reception line awaited him. Near the front of this line was Edmund Bizek, Romulus Township Supervisor. However, the line was shortlived as when the Vice-President was about to de-plane the bottom dropped out of the sky and the rains poured making everybody scurry for cover. Like they say in some circles, "any port in a storm" ... could be paraphrased for Bizek as ... "any phone booth in a rainstorm" ... He kept his hands dry to shake hands with HHH, but the VP thought he was making a phone call and walked right past ... and like the Cards said, so says Bizek ... "Ya can't win 'em all."

REACT Committee Corrects Views on Incorporation

ROMULUS — The "REACT-KEEP ROMULUS INTACT" Committee have reported back after each speaking engagement, that some Romulus township residents are still under the impression that if they vote YES on City Status and elect a Charter Commission in the Nov. 5 General Election that on Nov. 6, Romulus will be a city. These reports followed speaking engagements by React members.

THIS IS COMPLETELY FALSE!, officials of the non partisan committee said.

What it does mean is that for two years, the charter commission will work on and try to recommend a suitable charter.

ROMULUS WILL NOT BECOME A CITY UNTIL A CHARTER IS ACCEPTED BY THE VOTERS AND ELECT THE OFFICIALS TO GOVERN THE CITY.

Meanwhile, any of the surrounding communities that have designs on parts of Romulus will be unable to annex any portion of the Township, the committee said.

SOME RESIDENTS have argued that the portions of land in danger of annexation are vacant and undeveloped, and therefore would be no loss. This is not true. This is the land that is considered to be the most valuable because the annexing community can develop it to their tax advantage and you will be paying for the loss of this property from your own pocket.

Others are worried about the cost of becoming a city. This is why we elect a Charter Commission to investigate how much it will cost, and then you can vote to accept the charter or reject it.

Three (3) charters may be presented to the people in the two-year period. If residents don't approve the first one, they can go back to work and try to come up with a better and more acceptable Charter, and etc.

But during this period it's HANDS OFF ROMULUS by anyone wishing to take a chunk of our Township, the Committee added.

On Oct. 7, the React Committee requested the Township Board of Trustees to support this protection of Romulus.

Fall Bazaar Dates Listed

BELLEVILLE — St. Anthony's Parish will hold its annual "Fall Bazaar" on Nov. 2-3. It will include a variety of interesting booths -- fancywork, home-baked goods,

The vote was unanimous to adopt a resolution supporting the issue of protecting Romulus by voting YES for city status and electing a Charter Commission to go to work.

The Board's action was to impress the importance of protection of our boundaries. This is significant as it assures us that annexation attempts are real and they wish to protect our tax base.

"Because of our non-partisan, self protection, aims, we will continue after the Nov. 5 election to express our feelings, findings, and facts regarding our city status or rejection of it. BUT, meanwhile, let us protect what we have so we can study where we are going," Committee officials stated.

On Oct. 18, a fact sheet on this issue will be available and distributed. If you do not receive one please contact:

attic treasures, Christmas ideas. The Mother's Club will once again sponsor its popular Country Store and the parish's Teen Focus Club is also getting into the act with a new idea or two.

The Men's Club is selling tickets for two exciting events: an all-expense paid trip to Florida for two for one week as well as a week-end in Detroit for two.

Mrs. Lucille Remus is chairman of the two-day event which will be highlighted by chicken and ham dinners and all the fixin's served on Sunday. Mrs. Helen Gielinski will chair the annual program for the school children, which is a week-day event for St. Anthony students only.

Everybody Benefits Everybody Gives

The torchlighting this week signaled the start of the United Foundation's 20th annual Torch Drive, a 23-day season of asking and giving in which each of us plays a significant role and has a personal stake.

Through two decades and in 113 communities in the Wayne-Oakland-Macomb area, the Torch Drive has succeeded because our residents have been willing to "ask" of themselves and their neighbors as well as to "give" both of their time as volunteers and their money as contributors.

Our people in the three counties moved into world leadership in fund raising by surpassing all others in their commitment to keeping the annual campaign a two-way street.

THAT COMMITMENT is underscored in this year's campaign theme: "Everybody Benefits; Everybody Gives."

It was given visible proof at noon Monday when the three Torchlighters, each representing a county served by the UF and each a patient in a Torch Drive clinic, pushed the button igniting the gas-fed flame.

As the torch erected in area communities continues to burn throughout the drive, it should remind us all that we live better because of the annual campaign and the nearly 200 services it supports.

THE TORCH DRIVE not only helps the sick, the crippled, the orphaned and those suffering other adversities. It also benefits the healthy and the community as a whole.

It supports Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Boys' Clubs, the YWCA and YMCA, community centers and other group work and recreational programs appealing to every member of the family.

From its beginning, the campaign has proved to be the most economical and efficient means of helping individuals, building stronger families and meeting the needs of the entire community.

NEARLY 96 per cent of the contributions made to the Torch Drive go directly to fighting killing or crippling diseases through research which promises longer and healthier lives for all, mending marriages, helping the aged or caring for orphans and unmarried mothers.

Torch Drive gifts underwrite programs providing for personal growth, character building, learning new skills, gaining knowledge or simply making a better adjustment to our increasingly complex society.

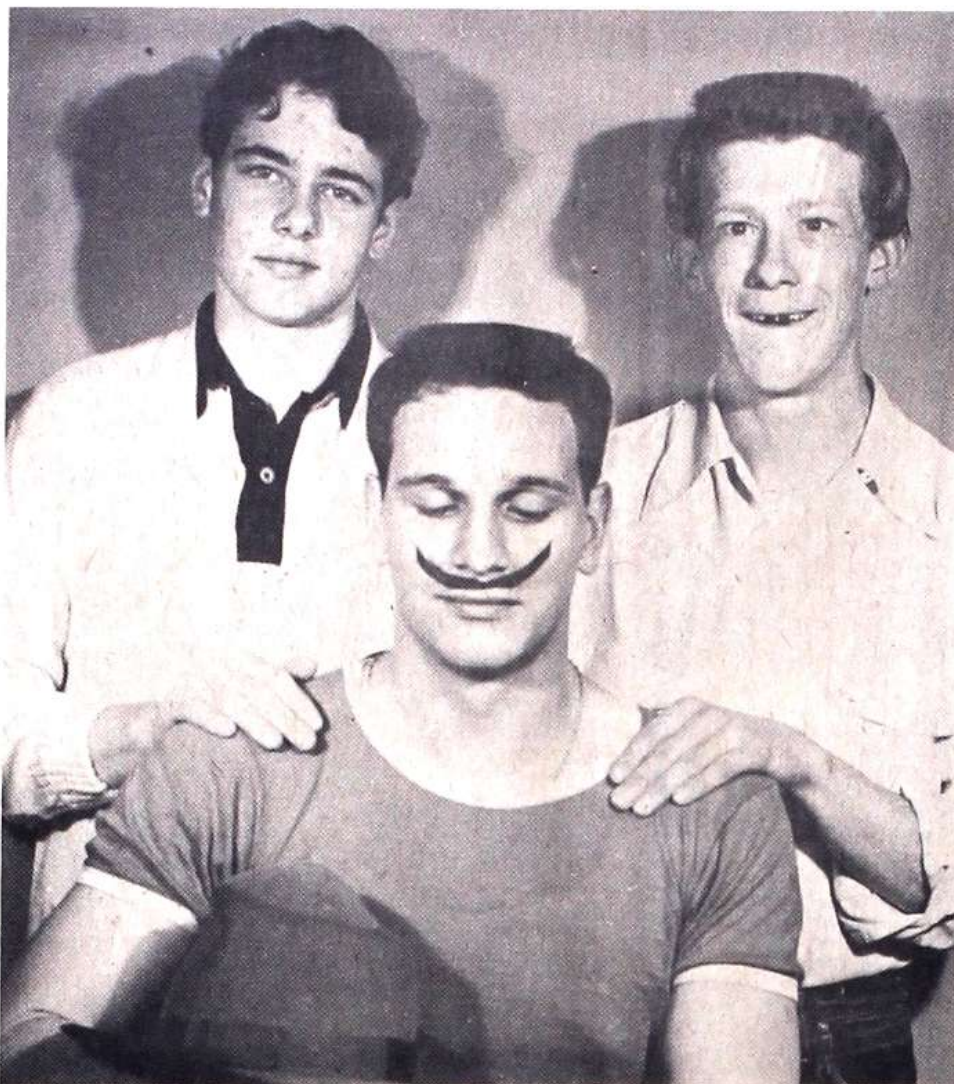

These contributions also are used to meet unanticipated community emergencies and to provide necessary services for our armed forces, both at home and abroad.

Monday's torchlighting marked the official beginning of the 1968 campaign which runs through Nov. 7 and seeks $27,550,000 for our vitally important services.

It can light the way to an even better community if we all give now and give enough.

"Candid Capers"

IN DAYS OF OLD — They say that "knights were bold!" But here in Belleville it seems like we had our own brand of "bold knights." This "picture gem" was found in the files and taken sometime back in the 1952 era. We shall not even print their names as in their hey-day at Belleville High School, wherever they were... "the action and the laughs wuz" ... so dear readers, dang-ding your memories and see if you can recognize this academy winning trio who went under the name of the "Holy Three" back in 1952, and of who Chief Irwin W. Stech once said, quote... "Hrumppff" ... unquote.

If It Fitz...

He Protests In His Own Way

By JIM FITZGERALD

No doubt about it. If I were 20 years younger I would grow a beard and carry a sign and bug the establishment.

And I would be more comfortable than I am today. Which is fat and forty and crew-cut. What kind of a hippie is that? If I wore sandals my knees would cave in. But my heart is transplanted to the kinds who stand up and holler at injustice.

I want to yell and march and picket and sit-in, too. But this is physical stuff which requires a certain amount of muscle and bravery. I wouldn't drive through Chicago without first trimming my sideburns. And Dr. Spock is in better shape than I am. Besides, I have to go to work every day or my family's world of credit cards will come tumbling down.

THE BITTER total is that I am too old, too cowardly and too busy to join the regular army of protesters. But I still have this gnawing to do my thing for the cause from the sidelines. To "do my thing" is young talk meaning you do what you do best for what you believe in. So I write things like this and end up in earnest arguments at cocktail parties. And it is these arguments which make me feel like Rap Brown at a DAR meeting.

A "pillar of the community" was giving me the devil the other day. I don't use that cliché with a sneer. Henry is the type of man upon whom our towns depend for support and sweat. He gives his time and money to the hospital and Red Feather and his church. He's been a county supervisor and a city councilman. He's raised fine children and his grandchildren look like good bets, too. I admire Henry for his contributions. But he makes me cringe when he has three drinks and yells at me.

"Yeah, you write about brotherhood. But wait'll the niggers come to town and move next door to you. See how ya' like it then."

Or about the Chicago mess: "Those filthy kids with their dirty beards didn't get hit hard enough. The cops don't have to take that stuff from those bums. If they don't want to be cracked on the head, they should stay home. What are they doing there anyway? I'll tell you — it's all a Communist plot."

And on and on.

THE HENRYS of this country are my contemporaries, my friends. When I look in the mirror, I see Henry — middle-age, middle-and-up income, dark suit, chubby, short hair or bald and clean shaven. The All American Rotarian. Just what my mother had in mind when she enlisted me in the Boy Scouts.

But when Henry discusses anything more important than poke, golf or baseball, he doesn't sound like me. He bugs me, just as I bug him.

I can't get mad at a kid just because he wears a beard and sandals. So did Jesus Christ. And I can't condemn young people who make it known, loud and long, that they are against the Vietnam war. Some of the best informed men in this country are convinced LBJ has escalated us into a civil war that is none of our business. The young people have a legal and moral right to dissent. That's what this country is all about, Buster.

I CAN'T get angry at any Negro who simply wants the same rights I was born with. I'm sickened by a civilization which insults Negroes (Indians, Puerto Ricans, etc.) and forces them to be twice as good to get half as far. One of my sisters is still single and she has my blessing to marry the blackest man who'll have her — if she wants to.

Just like Henry, I'm against violence. But I can understand how and why it happens. A rock thrown by a sinned-against Negro is better aimed than a club swung by a bully cop.

If George Wallace can spare any law and order, I'm for it. But the Boston Tea Party was illegal. Unjust laws will always be broken by uncompromising men, such as Martin Luther King, who will pay the penalty to stab the national conscience.

At best, Henry thinks I'm nuts. At worst, he's sure I'm a card-carrying Communist. Either way, you have got to keep an eye on me. I belong to the country club, but I'm not paying all the dues. Don't invite me and the VFW commander to the same party.

It's easy to see why Saturday is my most comfortable day. I never shave on Saturday.

Sumpter Road Resident Issues Answer to Toth's Criticism

TO THE EDITOR:
In reply to Mr. Toth's asinine remarks regarding the three residents who would not give him the easement two years ago, thus costing the taxpayers the additional amount. I for one am a taxpayer and it is my right to give, sell and do whatever I wish with my own property. Mr. Toth the next time you give out statements make sure it is the truth.

No. 1 - When Mr. Toth wanted the easement he failed to make it clear that the County was going to make a bid for it, and when I asked him about it he told me he wanted it before the County got it.

No. 2 - Prior to the easement another resident and myself asked about the water coming down Sumpter Road. Mr. Toth said the Township did not have the money.

No. 3 - Mr. Toth you keep saying two years ago you had a bid for $21,500. To my knowledge there has never been an advertised bid for the water line on Sumpter. Before quoting figures of what could have been I suggest you print a copy of when you advertised for bids on the Sumpter water line ACCORDING TO LAW, and the names and prices of those submitting such bids.

No. 4 - I have made a statement before the Township Board of these facts with other residents present, and I also stated there were five residents who did not give you the easement. If you choose to use my name I suggest you also use the names of the other four residents. Of course Mr. Toth turned verbal permission to use the property for putting in the water line.

IT MIGHT also interest the citizens of the Township to know that Mr. Toth raised the water rates 500% over what Detroit charges the Township (Mr. Toth blamed Detroit Water Board for the high cost of our water). Mr. Toth made an issue of my not submitting a copy of the letter pertaining to Mr. Stoelton and Quality Construction. I was on the Agenda for the purpose of putting it on record and getting an answer, I suggest you run the tape. Mr. Toth why are you so upset about this? Mr. Stoelton is a grown man and can talk for himself and to make this a simple matter he should admit or deny this in public.

Mr. Toth and the Township board seem to forget that we the Citizens and taxpayers are paying their salaries, (you are working for us) we are within our rights to ask questions on activities taking place in our township, and it is your job to give us the answers.

I have been submitting documents and asking questions which I think pertinent to good honest government and want some honest answers. Mr. Toth and Mr. Hogan if you feel that citizens are not entitled to ask questions and be concerned about what is going on in the township (without referring to it as garbage and muckraking as was quoted in the paper) under these circumstances I don't believe you belong on the board to run our Township.

Golden Touch of Friendship

By: Pfc R.K. Nystrom

DA NANG - A young Vietnamese is indeed fortunate if he gets a high school education. School dropouts are frequent - if a youngster gets a second chance at an education, it's a minor miracle.

But such is the case of 12-year-old Tran Van Pho who, because of the generosity of a group of Force Logistic Command Marines, is now financially able to continue his education.

Pho's story began three years ago, when he started sweeping floors and shining boots for Marines at the 5th Communications Bn. compound located near Da Nang. Since then, Pho has held numerous titles. Lance Cpl. C. V. Sharrow (9525 Tobine Rd., Romulus, Mich.), one of Pho's closest friends, said, "He's our morale builder, our mascot and our little brother."

"No matter what he does," Sharrow said, "you can't get mad at him. All he has to do is look at us out of the corner of his eye and smile - we're helpless then," he continued.

When Pho has his daily chores finished in the motor transport office, he spends many hours helping out at other chores. Because of his small, agile frame, he can crawl into places inaccessible to mechanics.

"He's saved us lots of time by just retrieving tools we've dropped," reports Cpl. D.W. Milan (McKinney, Texas). "Recently Pho has learned the procedures for changing spark plugs."

In recent months Pho has proven an invaluable aid to the 5th Comm's civic action program. When he first began helping out around the shop his English vocabulary consisted of little more than a few slang phrases. Now he has proven himself a very able translator.

He's my number one man when it comes to translating, said Staff Sgt. S.W. Ceprish (90 Henry St. Plain, Wilkes-Barre, Penn.), civil affairs chief.

For many months the Motor Transport Marines have dug into their own pockets to provide a token salary for Pho. Because he is only 12-years-old now, military regulations prohibit an official salary.

When it was decided that Pho should return to school on a fulltime basis, (he has been going to night school) the hat was passed. "I had no idea they would collect that much," said 2nd Lieut. V.A. Crovetti (Philadelphia, Penn.), officer-in-charge of the Motor Transport section.

The 18,000 Piasters ($153) collected will pay for Pho's tuition, books and clothing for at least two years.

Pho is presently in the equivalent of an American 5th grade at a small school near his home. Next year he will attend a larger "junior high" school.

"We hope our Marines at 5th Comm. will establish a perpetual fund to ensure Pho's graduation from a secondary school," said Crovetti.

In the meantime, a young Vietnamese happily trudges off to school each morning, content in the knowledge that someone cared...

C.W. Morris To Head Committee

ROMULUS — Carl W. Morris of 13599 Huron River drive, was notified recently of his appointment to serve as chairman of a new Federal Legislative Committee being set up to keep up with the U. S. Congress as it considers matters of education.

The appointment was made by Frank Heselton, president of the Michigan Association of School Boards.

Heselton recommended that the committee, to begin with, be limited to from five to seven people and that they make extensive studies of bills, proposals and amendments as they occur in the National Congress.

He asked that the committee include the Chairman of the State Legislative Committee and others who could assemble periodically in Lansing or Detroit for committee meetings.

Morris has been active for many years in educational circles, both on the local level and also, county and state.

Currently he is Vice-President of the board of Education of the Romulus community Schools; Vice-President of the Wayne County Intermediate Schools and also of the Wayne County Association of School Boards.

He also serves as a member of the State Legislation Committee and the Finance Study Committee.

The Michigan Legislature, which first met in Detroit, has occupied three capitols in Lansing. The first was a 60 by 90 foot frame building, the second a brick building, and the third still is in use. Its cornerstone was laid in 1873 and it was dedicated in 1879.

MIDNIGHT SHOCKER

IT'S NOT very often a person finds himself the guest of honor as the clock strikes 12 midnight. In fact, it's about the least plausible hour to be feted at a party. Perhaps that's why the little caper planned Sunday evening by Dave Seaman and his sister, Linda, came off as such an overwhelming 'shocker.'

Their parents, Russ and Phyllis Seaman, were the unsuspecting, rather worn-out, duo who'd just arrived from Brussels to New York to Detroit after three weeks in Europe.

So — here's how it all went. Dave, taking time off from crackin' the books at M.S.U. where he's a senior, and Linda, doing likewise from her final year at U. of M., put their heads together and came up with a novel idea for a welcome home party. Contacting members of their parent's bridge club, they got the group together around nine for an evening of cards until time for the jet's arrival at Metro. Leaving their fellow conspirators behind, the twosome met the plane and then returned to a darkened house (the rest of the gang hiding and ready to pounce as they came through the door.)

Shouts of surprise went off about the same time as the corks from the bubbling bottles of champagne with which the honored guests were toasted. Then it was party time in the balloon-bedecked, streamer-festooned living room which came to life with piano music supplied by Lee Wood and the singing from the 'group'.

Taking part in the hush-hush arrangements were Doug and Shirley Cullin, Justin and Marge Emerson, Lou Robson and Lee Wood, and John and Jan Wyman, all fellow bridge club cohorts since 1960, and also Tee Amerman.

The very first one to get into the act, though, was "Beta", the family pet and we suspect Phyllis will never live down her own greeting — witnessed by 11 hidden 'friends' (?)

ALL FOR M'LADY

FALL FASHIONS were unveiled ala Harvey Lazar last Tuesday at Detroit's Latin Quarter as the Tri-County Osteopathic Auxiliaries hosted their fourth annual luncheon-fashion show benefit, "Opus IV".

More similar to a Broadway production than style show, the afternoon began with snappy mannequins promenading to the theme music from "Bonnie and Clyde" — a few toting the popular accessory of that era, tommy guns. Special effects were the highlight of the afternoon (as only Lazar can produce) and even the music of that weird-o, Tiny Tim, was used as part of the act — this time each gal strumming a minute ukelele.

'Twas all much fun and a goodly number of our area's regular patrons were on hand to attest to the fact, including Lucille Perry and her table of six which included Virginia Turney and a foursome of G.M. wives. At a neighboring table we spotted Lois Hamilton, Tee Amerman, Dena Cicotte, and Ann Amerman.

Still others driving into Detroit were Jean Boutilier, Betty Sanders, Pat Ryback, Marjorie Jahr, Eula McKeever, Kal Reksan, Helen Miller, and Lee Smith as well as Betty Gott, Eunice Demick, Sylvia Mills, Doreen Craven, and Marguerite Greathouse.

Also adding to the applause and sighing cause not-a-one of the Belleville caravan came home with a door prize (and SUCH prizes — a trip to Bermuda, mink jacket and a hat, fur muff, wig wardrobe —) were Stephanie Box, Tina Branietki, Madeleine Muse, and Fran Suliman. Jean Troxell, Sye Chen, Ida Whitehouse, Onda Fox, Margaret Gollwitzer, Gloria Byrom, Sorita Egan, Ruth Pollard, and Evelyn Haswell who was with a group of out-of-town friends at a table for six, completed the local list.

And we just can't sign off without giving a great big hand to this year's general chairman, Belleville's own Marguerite Eorentson, who, as the gal-behind-the-show and emcee for the event, did SUCH a professional and poised job, she had us all agape. She really DID miss her calling cause she was marvelous — right down to her knee-high boots and cute off-white mini-dress.

FOR PAT 'N ERNIE

TWENTY-TWO YEARS of togetherness were chalked up Saturday night — right on the actual date, October 12 — by Pat and Ernie Ryback who marked their anniversary with a great big evening reception. Over 60 were on hand to offer congratulations to the Sunrise lane residents including former neighbors, friends, and class mates from Allen park, Farmington, Dearborn, Ann Arbor.

Some 40 local guests also added their bit to the festivities which included a buffet of finger hors d'oeuvres (each gal bringing a platter, chafing dish, or tray with her special tid-bit.) Highlight of the evening was the opening of gifts by the 'bride and groom' — each couple having been asked to bring a 50¢ gag gift. And there were some very clever people in that crowd!

Probably the most-lasting of all the gift, tho', will be the little autograph book which Pat and Helen Stokes contributed for each couple to sign. The book opened with a special Columbus Day-based poem written by Helen with Pat taking polaroid pictures to add to the pages.

HE DID, TOO!

IN CASE any of his little buddies are doubting the story six-year-old Brian Parsons is telling these post-World Series Victory-days, he's not joshin' you one bit! In fact, his mother and dad, Anita and Jack Parsons, are backing up his claims to the hilt! He DID see the Tigers arrive at Willow Run Airport last Thursday night and he WAS close enough to touch 'em — so there, too!

The Parsons, realizing the team would probably disembark at Willow Run, took off for the airport and were among the 500 who saw the arrival about 8:45. Along for the unforgettable experience were the other two-fifths of the family, Carl and Karen.

AT THE COMMONS

LAST THURSDAY'S beautiful fall weather found a number of local ladies on the North Campus of the University of Michigan — not to be scholastically uplifted but to be fashionably inspired. And that's just what the 50 or more ensembles did for our Belleville entourage — make them ooh and aah, to say the least. Mostly, though, they wished they were anticipating bridehood again cause the finale of the show was the most exquisite wedding gown most of us have ever feasted our sentimental eyes on.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Washtenaw District Dental Society was responsible for the presentation, "A Paris Happening with 'Tiger'", held this year at the Commons dining room. And the group's immediate past president, Helen Miller (Belleville's own), did her bit in modeling the lovely fashions.

Other Auxiliary members present with guests were Jean Troxell and three friends who dined earlier at the Statler-Hilton Ambassador as did Marge Roberts, Louise Hope, Gwen Liebler, Mary Anne Hudge, Joy Hill, and Lee Smith.

Arriving early enough for lunch at the Commons were another member, Wilma Tator, and her trio — Betty Schwehr, Avis White, and Onnalee Wall.

And still another club affiliate, Gerry Kelly, arrived with Carolyn Fogarty and Betty Kreie. Watching the show from the same table were Kal Reksan and Beulah Richards and from another view Maxine Henderson and her guest who included Ilene Renton.

MRS. MAST HOSTESS

Dried Arrangements Subject At Huron Garden Club

Mrs. Rodney Mast opened her home on Merle court for the October meeting of the Huron Valley Garden Club on Monday afternoon when 17 members fashioned fall arrangements of dried materials under the direction of Mrs. John Gras, Mrs. Melvin Budd and Mrs. Mast. The plaques and wall hangings were made of dried and preserved weeds, seeds, leaves, and pods collected along roadsides and woods.

The November meeting, at which Mr. Michael Sirdanik will be hostess, will tour the Hunter Greenhouses and plan Christmas activities and arrangements.

'WHAT IN THE World Does a Garden Club Do?' was the theme of the annual meeting of District I of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan held in Raleigh House, Detroit, on Wednesday, and attended by six members of the Huron Valley Garden Club.

Besides the study of Horticulture and Preservation of natural resources, providing training of teachers and scholarships for horticulture and allied subjects and scholarships and assistance to American Indians, clubs work for peace through World Gardening projects. They battle water and air pollution, promote garden therapy for mentally ill and elderly patients, and train junior and high school gardeners. These, with roadside beautification and anti-litter promotion, are but a few of the concerns of active garden clubs.

"Be pure, be honest, be beautiful!" This is the motto of Japan's Takarazuka All-Girl Revue — a living legend in show business for 54 years. It's big, bright and brassy! Four hours of music with 11 revolving stages, wind, rain and smoke machines, 1000 floodlights, 55 drop curtains and a 366-foot-wide proscenium — and not a man in the entire show. This show draws 1,800,000 people a year. So popular is Takarazuka that it fields four separate troupes, keeps three theaters busy, employs more than 300 persons backstage, has toured the U. S. and Europe. But it has hardly changed its sure-fire format in 54 years!

We will never change the fact that we give complete and dependable dry cleaning service at all times. Fast, 1-day service. HOOK'S CLEANERS INC., 32328 Mich. Ave., Wayne, PA 2-0162, 35 Main, Belleville, 697-8600, and 37311 Goddard, Romulus, 941-1010.

•• Belleville And Huron 'Happenings' Of The Past Week ••

WOW! A FIRE TRUCK — Second graders at Edgemont School were caught by our photographer as they learned just how a big red fire truck is operated from Belleville Fire Chief Bob Mason (the fella in the white hat) and volunteer fireman, Matthew Quirk. As part of Fire Prevention Week, students from the school either visited the local fire hall or were given a first-hand view of vehicles. Miss Carrietta Pierman (back) and Mrs. Marguerite Kouba (center of picture) are shown with their respective classes.

Denton Church Women Gather For Charter

The women of the Faith United Church of Denton held a historic meeting at their church Tuesday evening, Oct. 8. They met to sign the charter for the organization of the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild.

The meeting was opened by a musical prelude with Sally Gardner at the organ and Martha Hansen at the piano.

The invitation to membership and statement of the purpose of the meeting was given by the W.S.C.S. president, Ruth Good. Our Heritage was given by Ida Burkholder as a former member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. Esther Smith presented the history of the women of the former Methodist Church.

MEDITATIONS WERE given on the Bread of Life. Since many ingredients go into a loaf of bread, so must we bring together our concerns, our prayers, and our talents. The birth of the society and guild has also been preceded by steps in which we sense the hands of many working together with God.

The ingredients of a loaf of bread were presented by Sharon Hutchings, flour; Jessie Edwards, milk; Eleanor Hesse, salt; and Ethel McDonald, yeast.

After 66 women signed the charter, they were escorted by twos as in the Emmaus walk to their places in the dining room where an Agape feast was served.

Following the fellowship meal, all returned to the sanctuary for a program of prayer and self-denial under the leadership of Elizabeth Harper.

The two groups then separated for short business meetings bringing to a close an inspirational evening.

U.S. On Way To Moon And Heavens Beyond . . .

CAPE KENNEDY — SPACE CENTER, FLORIDA: APOLLO AND SATURN — These names are the most important words in the world of space today.

The world of space travel is still in its infancy, but they represent man's first strong steps out of his own, away from the protection of mother earth.

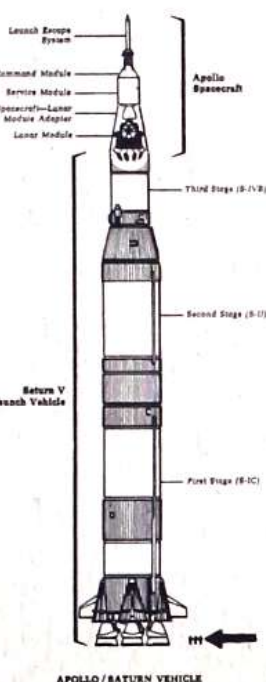

They mean the moon . . . and more.

The Apollo is the most advanced spacecraft chosen and developed by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to take three American Astronauts to the moon.

IT IS a basic building block for the more ambitious programs of the future. Some of the coming projects will be manned orbiting space stations and laboratories. Lunar bases will have to be established to be followed by exploratory flights to other planets such as Mars and Venus.

Saturn is the launch vehicle that will be these trips possible. It is more than twice as large, has more than 20 times the thrust, and is by far more complex than the world famed Titan II vehicles that powered all the successful Gemini manned flights the past few years.

The long awaited first step of the flight to the moon program became reality last week (Friday, Oct. 11) at the United States' Kennedy Space Center in Florida. Hectic but very which three U. S. Astronauts will whoosh to the moon sometime in the next two years.

NASA BLUEPRINT — That became a reality last Friday when the first U.S. manned space flight blasted off from Kennedy Space Center shows the various stages that comprise this monster space vehicle . . . The overall height is almost 400-feet. Arrow is pointed to relative size of men compared to the Apollo/Saturn which will carry U.S. Astronauts to the moon.

MANNING THIS giant spacecraft now in orbit, are three of the top Astronauts on America's roster. Spacecraft Commander is Captain Walter Schirra, Jr., USN on this historical earth orbit test. Major Don Eise, of the U. S. Air Force, is command module pilot and Walter Cunningham of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the lunar module pilot.

The massive giant launch vehicle carrying this mission into space has been designated as Apollo 7. It is a two-stage Upgraded Saturn I, with a first stage thrust of 1.6 million pounds. This tremendous power is capable of boosting over 20 tons of spacecraft into orbit above the earth.

Current plans call for the spacecraft mission to have a duration of at least eleven days. Emphasis will primarily be placed on complete checking and re-checking the complex spacecraft's subsystems.

Another major operation will be that during a certain point during the mission, Commander Schirra and his crew will separate the Apollo 7 from the booster's S-IVB second stage and proceed to exercise a transposition maneuver and docking such as will be performed during the flight enroute to the moon.

The people of the world for the first time were able to see the spacecraft and watch the Astronauts at work right inside the spacecraft. This has been made possible by the installation of a small television camera inside the Apollo 7. This camera beams the picture to ground stations where either live or tape picture coverage can be seen through the TV networks.

Without doubt this week should be the greatest historic milestone for the United States space program. Even before the first space flight of the Apollo 7 left the ground already preparations have long been under way for the NASA second and third manned flights.

THE SECOND FLIGHT, even more powerful than the first, the Apollo 8 will be the first to use the 7.5 million-pound thrust Saturn V. Spacecraft Commander for the second flight will be USAF Colonel Frank Borman assisted by Navy Commander Jim Lovell and USAF Major Bill Anders.

A well known Michigander from nearby Jackson, Michigan, and one of the world's most famous Astronauts, Lt. Col. Jim McDivitt, will be spacecraft commander Russell Schweickart of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and USAF Lt. Col. Dave Scott comprise the rest of the crew.

Lt. Col. McDivitt's and his crew will be performing many extra-vehicular activities with a special lunar module that is undergoing final touches in preparing it for the third flight.

Michigan's first governor, de Chastes and Sieur de Monts under French rule, was Aymar who ruled from 1603 to 1612.

Figure it up. By the time you're 65, you'll have earned a tidy fortune. But, you'll probably have spent most of it, too. So, between now and then, you should provide for an income upon reaching retirement age, plus protection for your family if you should die before then. Our retirement plans are designed to accomplish both for as little as $1 a week. Torch Drive Is Underway

Chairmen for the Western Wayne community residential and business campaigns were handed quotas this week as the 1968 Torch Drive got underway with torchlighting ceremonies and a kickoff luncheon.

The residential unit chairman, Mrs. Frederick C. Schneidwind Jr., of Dearborn, will seek $96,367 through house-to-house solicitations.

Quota for the Western Wayne Community business campaign is $48,487. Directing the canvass of neighborhood businesses is Harold A. Poling, divisional controller, engine and foundry division, Ford Motor Co. The residential region chairmen assigned quotas to their division chairmen for local divisions as follows: Region 35, Mrs. James Fruit - Mrs. Frederick Green, Canton Township, $1,399; Mrs. John Tator, Belleville and Van Buren Township, $1,467; Mrs. Gary L. Gruber, Romulus and Sumpter Township, $480; and Mrs. Ronald Bock, Huron Township, $899.

THIS AREA'S contributions will go toward the overall

Torch Drive goal of $27,550,000 which will benefit nearly 200 health and community services.

Of this total goal, residential campaigns in the United Foundation's three-county area are expected to raise $1,011,363. Target for the combined community business campaigns is $538,989.

More than $130,000 volunteers will call on neighbors and fellow workers for contributions during the 20th annual Torch Drive.

Tri-county chairman for residential campaigns is Mrs. Henry H. Hubbard III, of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Heading community business campaigns this year is Edward J. Blanch, assistant controller, Ford Motor Co.

The campaign got underway, with a torchlighting ceremony at noon Monday at the foot of Woodward in Detroit's downtown area.

The kick-off luncheon, attended by more than 250 top campaign leaders, was held at noon Tuesday.

Mother-Daughter Return From Hawaiian Islands

By Pearl Morris
WH 1-1187

Mrs. R. K. Torr and her daughter, Miss Norma Torr, of Wahman road returned Saturday from an airplane trip to the Hawaiian Islands. The two spent an enjoyable three weeks vacationing there and visiting the islands of Hawaii, Maui, Kauai and Oahu. They found impressive the National Cemetery set up in an extinct volcanic crater on Oahu and marked with pillars containing the names of 26,000 U. S. servicemen killed and missing in recent wars, including Vietnam. The two women also loved the reed orchids which bloomed profusely along the roadsides. Only mishap of the trip was a fall in which Mrs. Torr suffered a broken left arm on their first day of sightseeing in the Islands.

Miss Torr returned to her employment at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne as a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist Monday after a vacation in Hawaii.

The W.S.C.S. of the Community Methodist Church, Olive Street at Bibbins, will sponsor a Fall Rummage Sale this Friday and Saturday, October 18 and 19, in the church basement. The sale will be in progress Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. A wide variety of items will be offered, including good, clean clothing of all sizes, shoes and a good selection of household articles.

Results of the Kids' Day Peanut Sale, conducted in the community on September 27 by the Romulus Township Kiwanis Club, were announced this week. Leading salesman was Carl Morris, who sold a total of $100.60 worth. Runner-up was Edmund Bizek, Township Supervisor, who took in $92.84 for the club. Profits from the sale are used for the benefit of needy children in the community (for eye glasses, dental, etc.).

Mr. and Mrs. David Genaw, of Wayne, are the parents of a baby girl born Friday, October 11, at Garden City Hospital. The infant weighed 8 pounds, 2 ounces and was named "Lisa Marie". Mrs. Genaw is the former Linda Prevost of Wayne. David formerly resided on Castle drive.

Little Sylvia Hintz celebrated her third birthday October 7 at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Hintz, on Superior road. Party guests during the afternoon were her grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Rounsifer and great aunt, Mrs. Clara Smith, both of Sumpter; also a cousin, Cathy Wichello of Belleville, and neighbors, Dorothy Smolensky, Marty Sims and sons, Dwayne, Bryan and Pat; and her mother and sister, Mildred. The child received many pretty gifts. Ice cream and birthday cake were served.

Mildred Hintz of Superior Road attended an eighth birthday party Sunday for a cousin, Rene Wichello of Haggerty road, Belleville. 10 little girls joined in the celebration and enjoyed games and birthday refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant VanAernum and their daughter, Mrs. Julius Szabo, all of Romulus avenue, visited Mr. VanAernum's nephew, Maurice Smith, Sunday at St. Joseph's Hospital, Mt. Clemens, where he is confined after being seriously injured in an auto accident September 18. Mr. Smith's auto was struck by one contraining migrant workers when he was returning from his work on the night shift with N. Y.-Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Romulus trio also visited Mr. Smith's wife and five daughters at their home in Memphis, Michigan.

The Eugen Madejs of Cogswell road spent the weekend at their farm at DeTour in the Upper Peninsula.

PTA Meet Has Good Attendance

Mrs. Celia Green, first grade teacher received ice cream for her students for having the highest attendance at the meeting. A film entitled "Parent To Child About Sex" was shown. The "interesting" film had many good points on how to handle the problem all parents must have. School pictures will be taken today, Wednesday, Oct. 16, it was also announced. The next meeting of the PTA will be held at the school Nov. 12 starting promptly at 7 p.m. It will be an open house affair. Church Revival Underway

ROMULUS — A Revival is underway at the Church of God of Prophecy, Kempa Street in Romulus. The church is located two blocks off of Ecorse Road and Middlebelt.

Rev. Joseph Wossilek and his wife, Carolyn have come from Collinsville, Virginia to hold the revival.

Rev. Wossilek was born of Russian parents and raised in the Russian Orthodox religion. Injured in action with the U.S. Army in Korea, he suffered spells of paralysis and was told he might expect total paralysis within a year.

It was in this agonizing period after his discharge that he experienced his call to serve God. Two weeks later his back injury was gone and has not returned.

It is interesting to note that so thorough was the miraculous healing that Reverend Wossilek now lists weight-lifting among his hobbies!

REV. WOSSILEK attended Salem College in Salem, West Virginia, and later the Bible Training School in Cleveland, Tenn. Thus prepared, he went into evangelical work for the Church of God of Prophecy. In 1966-67 he received the "outstanding Evangelist award for soul-saving" at the General Assembly, the world conference of the church.

In the last twelve years Rev. Wossilek has traveled and worked in his ministry in thirty of our states. He is presently pastoring the church at Collinsville, Va.

The Church of God of Prophecy invites everyone to come and worship with them during this great revival. The revival expects to go on until Oct. 20.

Sunday School begins at 10 a.m. and morning worship service begins at 11 a.m. Evening evangelistic service starts at 7 p.m. each Sunday evening.

Rev. Gerald D. Goins is pastor of the church in Romulus.

The Riverside Insurance Company is part of the Transamerica Insurance Group, and has gained wide market acceptance through its low cost auto insurance plan which rewards customers for safe driving records.

we care

It takes an expert to grade beef!

In our great country we're lucky. Our government trains and employs experts...men who inspect and grade beef at hundreds of locations throughout the nation. They protect you...and retailers, like us.

That's why A&P is happy there's a U.S. government inspector on the premises of our meat plant serving this area.

Also important are A&P's own beef experts. Their job is to see to it that A&P Beef measures up to our own "SUPER-RIGHT" quality standards...

standards which don't exactly fit our government's grading categories.

For instance, some beef graded U.S. Choice just doesn't meet our "SUPER-RIGHT" specifications.

No wonder we don't hesitate to guarantee that the "SUPER-RIGHT" Beef you buy will be as flavorful and tender as you think it should be, or your money back.

So, you don't have to become an expert to choose great beef for your family...just shop A&P!

Huron High's Homecoming in Pictorial Review

LINE-UP OF PARADE ENTRIES — Officials reported excellent participation in this year's Homecoming Parade, a highlight of Huron High's annual celebration. Above can be seen the long parade of government officials and various floats of students and participating merchants coming up New Boston's main street.

PARADE WATCHERS — Among the huge throng that lined the streets to watch the homecoming parade were a few that the crowds did not bother. Nine-month old Lee Michael had no trouble seeing or keeping warm in the late evening chilly air. His mother Mrs. Mike Prybyla of 38327 Walnut from nearby Romulus lugged the tiny parade watcher around with this special knapsack carrier. Others took to the rooftops as is evident by the group on the roof of the gas station in the background.

PARADE WATCHERS AT CURB Hundreds of Huron Township's residents lined the curb along the march of Huron High School's Homecoming Parade last Thursday afternoon. The nice sunny afternoon attracted many spectators. Above are parade watchers at the Huron River Drive turn into downtown New Boston.

Boosters Club to Reactivate

NEW BOSTON — The Huron Athletic Boosters Club will hold a special meeting Sunday, Oct. 20, at 2 p.m.

Chris Maciolek, past president of the organization, is calling the meeting to try to reactivate the once active club, and to bring into it new members. The Club has been idle for the past year.

The Huron Athletic Boosters were organized to support the Huron football team and all phases of sports at Huron High. Over the past five years the club has raised close to $9,000 for the school system. This money has been used in all areas of the sports program.

AT HURON last year when the millage was defeated, the Boosters were called upon to contribute money. At this time, $3,000 was given to the school to carry their sports program through. This past month the Club donated $800 for movie equipment for the teams.

Maciolek added, "In order to get the morale of our teams up, we must have support of the parents and citizens of our township. In the past we, as citizens, have failed in this area."

giving two hours of their time a month by joining now, the Huron Athletic Boosters Club," he added.

The Boosters hold a two-hour meeting once a month. Membership is only $1 per year.

The Oct. 20 meeting will be at the New Boston Elementary School.

In 5 years you can save over $140.00 with a new Gas dryer.

Work it out for yourself. It takes less than 2¢ to dry a load of clothes with Gas. And you can dry 5 loads in a Gas dryer for the cost of drying 1 with electricity.

Based on the number of loads an average family dries, there's a saving of $28 or more a year—$140 in 5 years. Your Gas dryer can actually pay for itself in 5 years with the money saved in operating costs.

There are no hidden expenses, either. Installation is free. Maintenance comes to less than 20¢ a year, on the average (or the amount you can save on a few loads).

No wonder 7 out of 10 families that now have dryers have Gas dryers. Money aside, Gas finishes loads up to 10 minutes faster, so you can get more loads through in a day. Clothes come out fresh, soft and looking like new, including all your permanent-press things.

Gas makes the big difference... costs less, too. Not just for 5 years, either, but as long as you use it. See the latest dryer models at dealer or Gas Company showrooms.

Isn't it time you bought her a new Gas dryer?

Wayne, GC West Harriers Win WW Meet

TORRES SETS NEW COURSE RECORD

WAYNE — The Fifth Annual Western Wayne Invitational Cross Country Meet turned out to be a confrontation between Wayne Memorial and Livonia Franklin, and Ramon Torres and David Collins in the first heat, while defending champ, Garden City West Fought off challengers Taylor Center and John Glenn to retain its title in the second race.

The meet, co-sponsored by the Associated Newspapers, was held on Wayne Memorial's two-mile course. The host nipped co-defending champs Livonia Franklin and Garden City East, getting a record establishing performance from Torres who was pushed throughout the entire distance by Collins.

The Wayne harrier was clocked in 10:12.5 to Collins' 10:12.6, while Franklin's Jack Clark finished in third with a time of 10:25 with Wayne's Richard Meyer crossing the finish line in 10:29, for fourth place.

Coach Dick Miller's Zebras accumulated a total of 26 points to Franklin's 31 to earn the ANP trophy. East, last year's co-champ, finished in third with a total of 90 points.

Cherry Hill and coach Joe Grasley, making their debut in the meet, wound up in fourth with a total of 102 points just ahead of Belleville's harriers who rounded out the first race field. The Tigers had 139 points.

Torres set the pace throughout the entire two-mile course and stayed in the front with Collins challenging him most of the way.

Wayne and Franklin harriers split the first ten spots in the race with Wayne, aside from Torres' first place and Meyer's fourth, receiving sixth from John Drotar; seventh, Steve Shrope and eighth, from Mike Becker while Schultz was 10th; Franklin was second and third with Collins and Clark, fifth with Jim Kosteva, ninth with Kurt Miller and 12th with John Pellitter.

Cherry Hill's first man to cross the finish line was Phil Seibold who ran a 10:54 which was good enough for a 11th place while East's Greg Tapper was 13th in 10:58, the best of the Panther crew.

Belleville's Ken Quinley

produced a 11:18 for 21st place, which led the Tiger pack.

West was forced to give up first place to Taylor Center's Emmett Jones who crossed the finish line three tenths of a second before Conley. The winner was clocked at 10:34.

But coach Pinnell's Tigers came back for a third place with Don Andersen (10:40); 11th with Steve Wilcox (11:03); 12th, with Chris McCollam (11:04); and 17th, with Mike Uhelski (11:21) to sew up their second straight championship with a total of 45 points.

Deadlocked in second with identical 47 scores were Taylor Center and John Glenn.

Glenn's best was a fourth place by Dick Dittmar who ran a 10:41 for the course while teammates Norm Morris and Al Lamoreaux were also in the top ten, placing seventh and eighth, respectively.

Versatile athlete George Simmons came up with a 10:42 performance to place fifth to pace Robichaud's runners.

Here Comes Rouge, Romulus

TEAM	WON	LOST
River Rouge	3	0
Willow Run	1	1
Romulus	1	1
Ecorse	1	2
Hamtramck	0	3

ROMULUS — Fortunes will have it that faltering Romulus will greet undefeated River Rouge Friday afternoon for its "Homecoming Game". And only a Rouge misfortune could deter the title-bound Panthers from winning the Twin Valley Conference championship this season.

"They've won three straight," said Romulus coach George Pratt, "and they have one of their best teams — with balance on offense and defense, but I feel we're going to give them a good game."

"It's our Homecoming and if our boys play the way I know they can, we're not going to give in to them."

Romulus, however, did give in after a bitter battle to Ecorse and dropped into a tie for second with Willow Run last week. The Raiders rallied for two touchdowns in the final half to earn a 19-13 verdict from the Eagles.

The two arch-rivals settled for a scoreless initial period and Ecorse broke that deadlock early in the second quarter when quarterback Ken Jackson tossed to split-end

Mike Thomas for a touchdown which covered 25-yards.

Romulus wasted no time getting that TD back. Halfback Roy Williams took the ensuing kick-off on his own 20-yard line, faked to the center of the field and dashed to the sidelines, going the distance to tie up the score.

Tom Block's conversion attempt was blocked and the two teams retreated to the locker-rooms to discuss a 6-all tie at halftime.

Ecorse got the first break when the two teams came back to the gridiron. Midway in the third period Raiders' Ira Jackson grabbed Chris Ginski's fumble and ran it in from the 24 yard line for a touchdown. Jackson also got the extra point.

Again the Eagles were forced to play catch-up ball and coach Pratt's boys came through for the second time. Phil Derwinski put the rush on Ecorse's punter and was able to recover a fumble on the Raiders' 10-yard line to set up the tying TD.

Three plays later, quarterback Ginski went over from the one and a pass from the Romulus QB to Derwinski knotted up the score again.

Both teams continued to play an alert brand of defense until Ecorse broke the deadlock for good when fullback Ron Matthews broke loose for the winning touchdown.

The Eagles organized their final TD threat in the fading minutes of the game and drove from their own 28-yard line to the Ecorse 30 with the help of a 29-yard sprint by fullback Dave Brown and an 18-yarder by Louis Davis, but the Raiders picked off a pass to smother the Eagles' last chance of retaliation.

Romulus earned 250 yards of which 69 was contributed by a two of 20 passing attack. Defensively Ken Parker, Lou Davis and John Stanek again emerged with stellar performances. Parker bagged 11 unassisted tackles and six assists while Davis topped nine and also had six assists.

Stanek, a 6-3, 195 pound middle guard, kept Ecorse running the other way.

Brown's 56 yards for 14 carries was the best the Romulus backfield could muster.

BELLEVILLE HARRIERS — A young and determined Belleville cross country squad found the going rough at the fifth annual Western Wayne Cross Country meet Friday. Representing the Tigers in the meet were (left to right) Ken Quinley, Rod Warrick, Allen Fant, Jim Smallish, Harry Bodenmiller and Steve Eller.

At first the Star Spangled Banner was not very popular with the American people.

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Tom Mooradian

Lighting a Fire

Sportscaster Ernie Harwell lit a fire a couple of Sundays ago and it continues to burn not only in the United States but wherever the Star Spangled Banner is being played.

The spark, Harwell's recommendation of Jose Feliciano's appearance as a guest-singer for the fourth game of the World Series, exploded when the 22-year-old guitarist put some "soul" into the music. Jose's "unorthodox" presentation of our National Anthem shocked the nation and the wave carried across the world.

Some protested — nothing new; others defended, something old.

But many missed, in our opinion, the essential point. Feliciano has the right, again our opinion, to give his "interpretation of the song; put as much feeling, "soul" or anything else into it as he wishes. This is an actor-singer's prerogative.

"I like to feel a personal involvement in the lyrics," he says.

We agree.

But, it also is our opinion, that Jose was invited to LEAD the audience in singing the anthem — and who the heck could have followed him in that style?

Times Don't Really Change

And the Sports Meridian has to pay off a bet to nine-year-old Randy Herkness, of Garden City, who caught me off guard last Monday and asked if the Detroit Tigers were going to win the World Series.

I told him, after that disastrous Sunday (remember?) that I don't think so.

"If they win the Series, will you put my picture in the paper?" he asked.

"Sure," I replied, thinking, "poor kid," he and his Tigers (they were down 3 games to 1) don't stand a chance. Well, the rest is history. Monday I got this letter in the mail.

Dear Sports Meridian:

I was so sure the Tigers would win the championship that I bought my uniform and had these pictures taken. Hope you can use them in the paper. I also made a lot of posters and pennants, that I'll send you later.

How come you're a sports editor if you don't believe in the Tigers?"

Thank You,

Randy Herkness.

Randy, the readers are asking me the same question you are but for different reasons. Anyway, a promise, is a promise. If only I could pick winners the way you did, believe you and me, I wouldn't be banging on this typewriter.

I'd be in Las Vegas.

Ironing Out Cross Country Course

I got my first chance to see a cross country meet and boy was I surprised! The meet, sponsored by the Associated Newspapers, was the Fifth Annual Western Wayne Invitational held at Wayne Memorial.

Got to give Dick Miller and the boys a lot of credit for organizing the tournament so smoothly. Is that the reason why the course was so "flat?"

I thought cross country is run over "hill and dale" through woods, over humps and stumps!

I knew Manny Lentine was perturbed at me because I failed to get those "Homecoming" pictures in last week — but to cast away The Wayne Eagles' Trophy for the "All Around Athlete" at St. Mary's.

Gee, Manny, 'tain't my fault if it rains and the photographer doesn't get there, is it? I know the other paper had the photos, but our boys are not scuba divers — they're pilots.

So, if you want that beautiful trophy pack which some kid found in the waste paper basket — you can pick it up at the ANP sports desk.

OUR MAN LOLICH — Stepping into the spotlight at Willow Run Airport and caught by ANP photographer Lothar Konietzko is World Series hero Mickey Lolich who won "those" three crucial games for the Tigers. And winning them gave him the 14th annual Sports Magazine World Series Award — a neat Dodge Charger.

Lolich is Named Winner Of World Series Award

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 — Pitcher Mickey Lolich of the Detroit Tigers has been named winner of the 14th annual "SPORT Magazine World Series Award" as the outstanding player in the 1968 World Series.

Chosen moments after the conclusion of the Series by the editors of SPORT Magazine, Lolich received his prize, a 1969 Dodge Charger R/T, at a luncheon in his honor today (Oct. 14th) at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City.

Lolich received the award for posting three complete-game victories in the Series against the St. Louis Cardinals, including a five-hit 4-1 victory in the seventh and deciding contest. Lolich also stopped the Cardinals, 8-1, in the second game, and 5-3, in the fifth contest.

Lolich becomes the ninth pitcher in history to win three games in a best-of-seven Series, joining such illustrious names as Christy Mathewson (1905), Babe Adams (1909), Jack Coombs (1910), Urban Faber (1917), Stan Coveleski (1920), Harry Brecheen (1946), Lew Burdette (1957) and Bob Gibson (1967). Gibson received the "SPORT Magazine World Series Award" last season for his three complete-game victories against the Red Sox.

Authority Appoints Naturalist

Robert F. Wittersheim, of 3740 Pardee, Dearborn, who was graduated with a Bachelor

Michigan State University in 1966, has been appointed to the Naturalist Staff of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

The announcement was made by William F. Hopkins, Chief Naturalist for the Authority, which operates a chain of eight parks throughout the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne.

Wittersheim has been assigned to the Nature Center at Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford.

Previously, Wittersheim worked as a Naturalist for the Authority in the summer of 1966 when he was assigned to the seasonal nature center at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville. He recently completed two years of service with the United States Army.

Huron Seeks First Win at Jefferson

When you hit stone bottom, sports sophists say, there's but one way you can go - and that's up. But you can't blame Huron football coach Tom Grange if he challenges that cliché.

"We're on the bottom," says Grange, "and we're not heading up. And if we don't head up this week, I don't know when we will."

Huron, which has failed to win a Huron Conference game in four starts, will attempt to break that streak Saturday when the Chiefs take on Monroe Jefferson. Jefferson is one up on coach Grange's team, winning one of their four starts and are presently in a three-way tie with Grosse Ile and Gibraltar for sixth place.

The Chiefs dropped their fourth to a highly-respected Monroe Catholic Central team which is undefeated and deadlocked for first in the league with Tecumseh. Monroe, after a 21-0 first half lead, breezed to a 35-0 finish.

"Our kids responded to the challenge of a team which is ranked in the State's Class B ratings," said coach Grange. "We couldn't move against them offensively, but our boys did play a good defensive game in spots."

The Huron coach commended linebacker Thel Dreganski and end Jerry Dulecki for their efforts while guards Dennis Hemmingway and Mark Sheats all chipped in with an outstanding performance.

School Report Advocates More State Aid

In July, 1966, the Michigan legislature, acting upon a request from the Michigan State Board of Education, appropriated $200,000 for a comprehensive study of educational finance. The State Board subsequently appointed Dr. J. Alan Thomas, director of the Midwest Administration Center, University of Chicago, to direct the study.

The report represents approximately 15 months of research on the part of a 50-man study team. A large number of individuals—both professional and lay—assisted in the division of information. Non-public as well as public school authorities took part in the collection of appropriate data.

The emphasis of the study was on an examination of educational opportunities available to the youth of Michigan, and of the relationship of these opportunities to the financing of education. It included the nature of programs and services, the qualifications of personnel, the quality of school housing, and selected subjects such as dropout rates and pupil achievement.

On the basis of this analysis, differences in educational opportunities in Michigan were identified. These differences were related to certain key characteristics of schools and school districts. Among these characteristics were: (a) economic factors, such as the per-pupil state equalized valuation of property and per-pupil expenditure; (b) geographic factors, including the geographic location of the school districts, school district boundaries, and urban as opposed to rural location; (c) social class factors, including the income, occupational level, and quality of housing of the clientele of schools.

The study first examined the student population of the state. Trends in public and non-public enrollment were analyzed and enrollment projections were made which indicate that elementary enrollment is slightly declining while secondary enrollment is increasing. Enrollments in high school completion courses for adults, and pre-kindergarten programs are also increasing substantially.

In the area of educational opportunities, it was established that more favorable opportunities are available to students who live in districts of (a) high per-pupil state equalized valuation, (b) high expenditures per pupil for education, (c) larger school districts and, (d) high social class in terms of income, residences and occupation.

The study also indicates that the services of well qualified teachers and other professionals are not equally available to the children of the state.

The study reveals that the larger school systems in Michigan have a teaching force composed of individuals who have higher levels of academic qualification and greater experience. In addition, larger districts pay higher average salaries to teachers. These larger districts, which employ teachers who already have the highest qualifications as measured by degree and certification, also provide greater opportunities for teachers to up-grade their disciplinary knowledge and pedagogical skills.

The best qualified teachers (in terms of degree preparation and certification) are employed in the Detroit Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area, which includes Western Wayne County, while the least well qualified are in the northern parts of the state. Unfortunately, the northern parts of the state also appear, on the basis of the data, to have an inadequate program of in-service training for teachers.

The shortage of teachers and other qualified supporting personnel appears to be greatest in the more densely populated metropolitan areas. This finding can be explained in part by the greater quantitative needs for personnel in these regions, both in terms of total student population growth and in terms of the desire to provide a broader program. A reluctance among many teachers to work in inner-city schools may contribute to the problem.

The wealth of a school district (in terms of its State Equalized Valuation per student) appears to affect the nature of the personnel it can attract. Wealthier districts have older, better qualified teachers and administrators (as measured by college training and certification) who have remained with their present system for longer periods. They also have a larger proportion of male teachers.

According to the report, new school construction in Michigan is financed almost exclusively from funds borrowed by local school districts. These funds are obtained through the sale of general obligation bonds. No state capital outlay is provided as direct aid, although five per cent of the basic state aid allotments may be diverted for capital outlay purposes at the discretion of local boards of education. Under certain conditions, state aid for debt service is provided, in the form of interest bearing loans, to local school districts.

State Department of Education reports show that from 1955-56 through 1963-64, less than one million dollars was loaned to local school districts through this school bond loan program. In the period beginning in 1964-65, there was an acceleration of borrowing, and through the three years, 1964-67, over seven million dollars was borrowed through the program.

In the school year 1967-68, the school districts of Michigan raised more than $500 million from their own sources for the purpose of financing their educational expenditures. Contributions from higher levels of government—primarily the state—exceeded $600 million. Thus, slightly less than half of the school operating costs are financed locally.

At present, Michigan school districts rely almost entirely on the property tax for their locally derived revenue for operation and debt retirement. In comparison with neighboring states, Michigan's property tax is a relatively low proportion of the total state-local tax system. For example, property taxes per capita in Michigan are lower than in Illinois, Wisconsin, or Minnesota.

Approximately the same amount of total revenue for education in Michigan is derived from state taxes as is obtained from local taxes. State grants-in-aid to local districts constitute a large portion of local school district revenues and these grants are partially equalizing in their effect. However, there are still differences in expenditure level which are associated with differences in state equalized valuation per pupil.

While some states distribute a large proportion of their grants to local districts on a categorical (or special purpose) basis, Michigan relies predominantly on general aid.

The remaining proportion of Michigan's revenues for education are derived from the federal government. These revenues have shown a considerable increase in recent years.

The Thomas study did not ignore the state's non-public schools. It reports that the 2,375,432 children enrolled in elementary and secondary schools in Michigan in 1966-67, 338,450 (14.2 per cent) were attending non-public schools. (The national non-public enrollment also comprises slightly more than 14 per cent of all pupils.)

Of 338,450 students in Michigan non-public schools during 1966-67, more than 99 per cent were found in religiously affiliated institutions. Of these, about 84 per cent were in Roman Catholic schools, seven per cent in Calvinist schools, and seven per cent in Lutheran schools.

The proportion of the student population found in non-public schools has been decreasing in recent years, apparently in response to fiscal pressures, and it seems that this trend is largely accounted for by curtailed enrollments in the Catholic schools.

The Thomas Report also examined the structure and function of local and intermediate school districts. This examination revealed that only 10 per cent of the state's 743 local school districts were considered adequate and that inconsistencies abound within the intermediate districts.

The Thomas Report contains a summary of recommendations to the State Board of Education. These recommendations were general rather than specific in nature.

Regarding the financing of education in Michigan the report suggests additional emphasis on the use of state financial aid for reducing inequalities in educational opportunity for Michigan's students. It also suggests that the state should assume a greater share of the responsibility for solving urban educational problems.

The report also cites the need for devotion of considerable resources over the next decade to the extension of programs of vocational-technical education. Since the amounts of money involved are significant, every possible effort should be made to avoid waste and duplication. Careful state planning for the location of facilities and for program development were urged.

In regard to financing special education, the report recommends that special education programs should be made available throughout the state and that the state should absorb 75 per cent of the teachers' salaries in these programs.

Additional recommendations were tendered in the areas of: transportation, school construction finance, school construction design, and the year-round operation of schools.

Thomas' report also recommends that a commission be appointed to develop a master plan for school district organization in Michigan to reduce the number of school districts to a point where education can be most efficiently provided throughout the state.

Regarding non-public education, the report says, "It is apparent that the non-public schools in Michigan (as in most of the nation) are faced with considerable financial stress. This stress is accentuated by the desire of Catholic school authorities to improve their programs, by placing limits on class size, by instituting improved salary schedules, and by insisting on safeguards on teacher qualifications.

"Some relief has been provided to the non-public sector, through federal programs. Within Michigan, a number of programs have been instituted whereby services provided by public school systems are made available to non-public school enrollees.

"If pluralism in Michigan's educational system is to be preserved, public attention to the plight of the non-public school is essential. On the other hand, proposals for state support of non-public education should be carefully examined, for their possible harmful and beneficial effects."

Michigan legislators are paid $12,500 a year plus $2,500 in expenses. The governor receives $40,000, secretary of state and attorney general $30,000, and lieutenant governor $22,500.

VIETNAM LIFELINE — As two HU-1 helicopters hover overhead for protection, a Lockheed C-130 Hercules Air Force Medevac flying ambulance is loaded with another group of wounded to be evacuated to proper hospital areas. This assures American fighting men the best chance of medical aid and better recovery than of any other fighting man in the world.

Air Evacuation Flight Crews Provide Wounded Fast Aid

By BILL BALOGH
Aviation Writer

TUY HOA, VIETNAM — American servicemen wounded in Vietnam now have a better chance of recovering from their injuries than any other fighting men in the history of warfare.

One big reason is the rapidity with which the wounded soldiers and marines are evacuated to proper medical facilities by Air Force C-130 flying hospital ships.

Moving injured soldiers from lonely combat outposts to medical centers for quick and proper treatment has become the main task of two Lockheed C-130 "Hercules" from the 7th Air Force Task Force Alpha at Tuy Hoa Air Base.

Modified to carry stretchers rather than cargo, including a flight nurse and two medical technicians in their crews, the flying ambulance planes make a circuit of the northern half of the Republic of Vietnam on an average of twice a day to move out the wounded men.

Helicopters lift the wounded GIs from the jungles and rice paddies to base camps with landing strips long enough to accommodate the C-130s. The men are given medical care available to them there, and are loaded onto stretchers to await their medevac flight. If his injury is a critical one, he can be on his way to medical help within 30 minutes after being wounded.

The medevac C-130 plane comes in for a landing in a huge cloud of dust that is kicked up by its four roaring engines.

Then the men who can walk move up the ramp by themselves. Those who cannot are carried aboard on their stretchers and strapped into hammock-like bunks running a double row down the center of the aircraft. The men who walked aboard strap themselves into canvas seats. Moments later the aerial medevac plane is in the air again.

Moving among the patients, the medical crew makes them as comfortable as possible and stands by to care for their needs until the plane reaches its destination at the key hospital base.

By the time the aircraft touches down, ambulances are waiting to rush the wounded men to proper hospitals, depending on their injuries, for additional treatment.

Even as this hectic, but smooth, operation of unloading all the flown-in wounded is being carried out, the aircraft is already being refueled for another run. Flight crews take a few moments for rest and food during these intermissions, because once their pickup mercy flight begins they have very few moments without hectic and danger-packed hours.

Many returned servicemen from Western Wayne have praised this medevac air ambulance operation highly. Pvt. Joe Dombrowski, Sgt. Jim Buckner, Corp. Bruce Presley, just to name a few, can heap compliments on the aerial evacuation carried on by these medical flight crews and airplanes.

This fast transportation of the wounded, sometimes within minutes after they were wounded, to proper hospital facilities is giving them a far better chance of recovery than any other fighting man in any army in the world.

LAW AND ORDER

Excerpts from a speech by EMIL MAZEY, UAW Secretary-Treasurer

Looking for scapegoats is an old custom—especially during an election year. The so-called "law and order" campaign issue provides an excellent example of that.

Both Richard Nixon, the Republican candidate, and George Wallace, the ultra-conservative candidate, offer a seemingly simple solution. They are saying to the electorate: "Elect me President and I will end crime in the streets."

First of all, street crimes are a matter for state and local authorities, and neither Nixon nor Wallace have said just how they would or could involve the federal government to make our streets "safe."

PROMISE VS. PERFORMANCE

But having made the promise, these candidates—or their parties—leave themselves open to judgment on their past performance on this very issue.

The states of New York, Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, California and Wisconsin have Republican governors. They have also experienced increases in their crime rate. The city of New York is governed by a Republican mayor. It too has suffered from an increase in crime during that mayor's tenure.

It would be grossly unfair to blame these Republican office holders for that crime rate—just as it is unfair to blame it on the present Administration in Washington.

NIXON, TELL YOUR FRIENDS!

But if Nixon has a solution to this problem, he ought to give it to his Republican colleagues now holding office on the state and local level.

THE WALLACE RECORD

Wallace has even less to brag about when it comes to fighting crime.

Birmingham, the largest city in Alabama, has 12.2 murders per 100,000 population, according to the latest FBI Report, compared to a rate of 7.7 murders in Washington, a city Wallace holds up as an example of a "crime-infested city." And the national average is 5.6, less than half the Birmingham rate.

The rate of murder for the entire state of Alabama is THE HIGHEST of any state in the nation. Alabama's rate of aggravated assaults (muggings, beatings, etc.) is the fourth highest in the country.

Alabama is also the state where four young girls were killed in church by a bomb, and those who did it were never tracked down by Wallace's "crime fighters."

This is the state George Wallace has controlled for quite a few years. How can he now tell people in Michigan and elsewhere that he has the solution to the problem of crime?

CRIME'S CAUSES

Poverty, unemployment, discrimination, poor housing, lack of medical care and inadequate educational opportunities contribute to increasing crime. However, crime is also increasing in the affluent sector of our society. Many youths from well-to-do suburban families are involved in more crimes than ever before.

HUMPHREY: BEST BET

Vice President Hubert Humphrey knows how to establish law and order with justice in our country.

EMIL MAZEY

As a Senator, he supported housing legislation to wipe out slums; he supported Medicare to improve the health status of older people and to take the financial burden of such bills off the backs of younger people; he supported minimum wage legislation to raise the living standards of people at the bottom of the economic ladder; he supported legislation to give poor children the opportunity for a decent education.

HUBERT HUMPHREY HAS SPONSORED AND SUPPORTED LEGISLATION TO HELP SOLVE SOME OF THE PROBLEMS IN OUR SOCIETY THAT ARE THE ROOT CAUSES OF CRIME.

Crime will not be solved by easy answers or phony promises. I hope no American will be fooled by the easy-answer boys.

REGULAR MEETING
SEPTEMBER 24, 1968

The meeting opened with pledge of allegiance to the flag. Supervisor Toth called the meeting to order at 8:00 P.M.

Board members present were: Toth, Birk, Domick, Stoelton, Hogan and Payne. Maton excused, also present were 10 citizens.

Motion Stoelton, support Hogan, to approve as presented, the minutes of September 10, 1968. Carried unanimously.

Mr. Jenkins, President of the Civic Association, thanked the Board Members for delaying action on the zoning of the Volk property. Also for four Board Members present at their meeting of September 19, 1968.

Correspondence were read, acknowledged and filed.

Motion Hogan, support Birk, for the Board Members to attend a hearing in Lansing pertaining to the pollution and total body contact of Belleville Lake. Also to direct a letter to the Water Resources Commission for the date of such meeting. Carried unanimously.

Mrs. Sawmiller has not given a copy of a letter she read, to the Board as requested, therefore it has not been made a part of these minutes.

Three bids were opened pertaining to construction of a water line on Sumpter Road, from City Limits south to Spencer. The bids ranging up to $57,654.00. Supervisor Toth stated that it was unfortunate that Mrs. Sawmiller along with three others on Sumpter Road refused to give easements two years ago for this water line, which could have been constructed at that time for $21,500.00. Therefore costing the tax payers of Van Buren Township, at this time, approximately $23,000.00. more for the line. He feels it is outlandish that some people of the community will not cooperate with the Board for these very important projects. Also to have to wait two years

Motion Stoelton, support Birk, to deny a zoning request for an industrial park at Van Born and Morton-Taylor Roads due to water and sewer being so far away and also as requested by Wayne County Planning Commission. Carried unanimously.

Motion Stoelton, support Birk, to concur with the cancellation of certain delinquent Wayne County personal property taxes for the year of 1962 and prior years. Carried unanimously.

Motion Maton, support Stoelton, to accept the Building Department and Treasurer's reports as presented. Carried unanimously.

for the County to condemn the property in order to put the water line in and depriving citizens of water they so desperately need.

Motion Stoelton, support Hogan, to refer the water line bids to the Township Engineer for study as to the proper bid and review if the prices submitted are in line of construction of today. Carried unanimously.

Motion Stoelton, support Domick, to purchase a Calculator, costing $557.60 for the Treasurer's Office. Carried unanimously.

The Board held a discussion about the Kiscaden Spring on Haggerty Road, where people go for water, thus causing many near fatal accidents due to not enough parking space on the shoulder of the road. Also there being quite a large dip in the road at this particular spot making it almost impossible to avoid an accident when cars are parking partially on the highway.

A motion by Domick, support Hogan, to recommend to the Wayne County Road Commission to either close the Spring or to correct this problem of parking and other problems in the area in the interest of safety in any way they see fit. Carried unanimously.

Supervisor Toth said if Kiscaden is closed, all Township people who are getting their water from there are welcome to get water at the Township Hall at no cost.

Motion Stoelton, support Hogan, to accept the recommendation of the Planning Commission and zone to R-M the Volk Property at Denton and Beckley Road, as some of the former objectional points were revised. Carried unanimously.

Motion Domick, support Stoelton, to reject the bids on the addition to the fire hall on Ecorse Road. The cost of $12,770 is much too high for three walls and a roof and to check with building, Electrical and Heating Contractors in the area for prices on same. Carried.

Motion Stoelton, support Hogan, to execute agreements between the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners, the Township of Van Buren and Morris Levine and Associates providing for preparation of preliminary plans and specifications and the preparation of a master sanitary sewerage plan in Van Buren Township. Carried unanimously.

Motion Stoelton, support Hogan, to authorize the Wayne County Road Commission to pay estimate vouchers as presented by Morris Levine and Associates. Roll call vote carried unanimously.

Supervisor Toth announced that Sinocola Construction Company has been given to the end of the week to finish their clean-up on Belleville Road or the Township will hire this clean-up done and deduct the cost from the monies being held.

Motion Stoelton, support Domick, to table payment of four turkeys killed by stray dogs until a verification of how to handle the problem of six others that are missing. Carried unanimously.

Motion Stoelton, support Birk, to approve a transfer of an SDM license from Alfred F. Chudzinski, located at 41785

Savage Road to Hannan, Sarah Josephine and Leon J. Platek. Carried unanimously.

Motion Stoelton, support Hogan, to appoint Payne to the Planning Commission for year ending September 24, 1969. Carried.

Motion Stoelton, support Domick, to accept the Water Department report as presented. Carried unanimously.

Motion Hogan, support Domick, to purchase a pump for Fire Department No. 1. Carried unanimously.

I, Erma J. Payne, Clerk of the Township of Van Buren, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, certify the aforesaid to be a true part of the Minutes of a Regular Meeting held October 8, 1968.

it's 'Official' in Associated Newspapers

No matter where you live in Western Wayne County, one of the FIVE Associated Newspapers is the official legal publication of your community!

WHAT DOES THIS DESIGNATION MEAN?

TO YOU

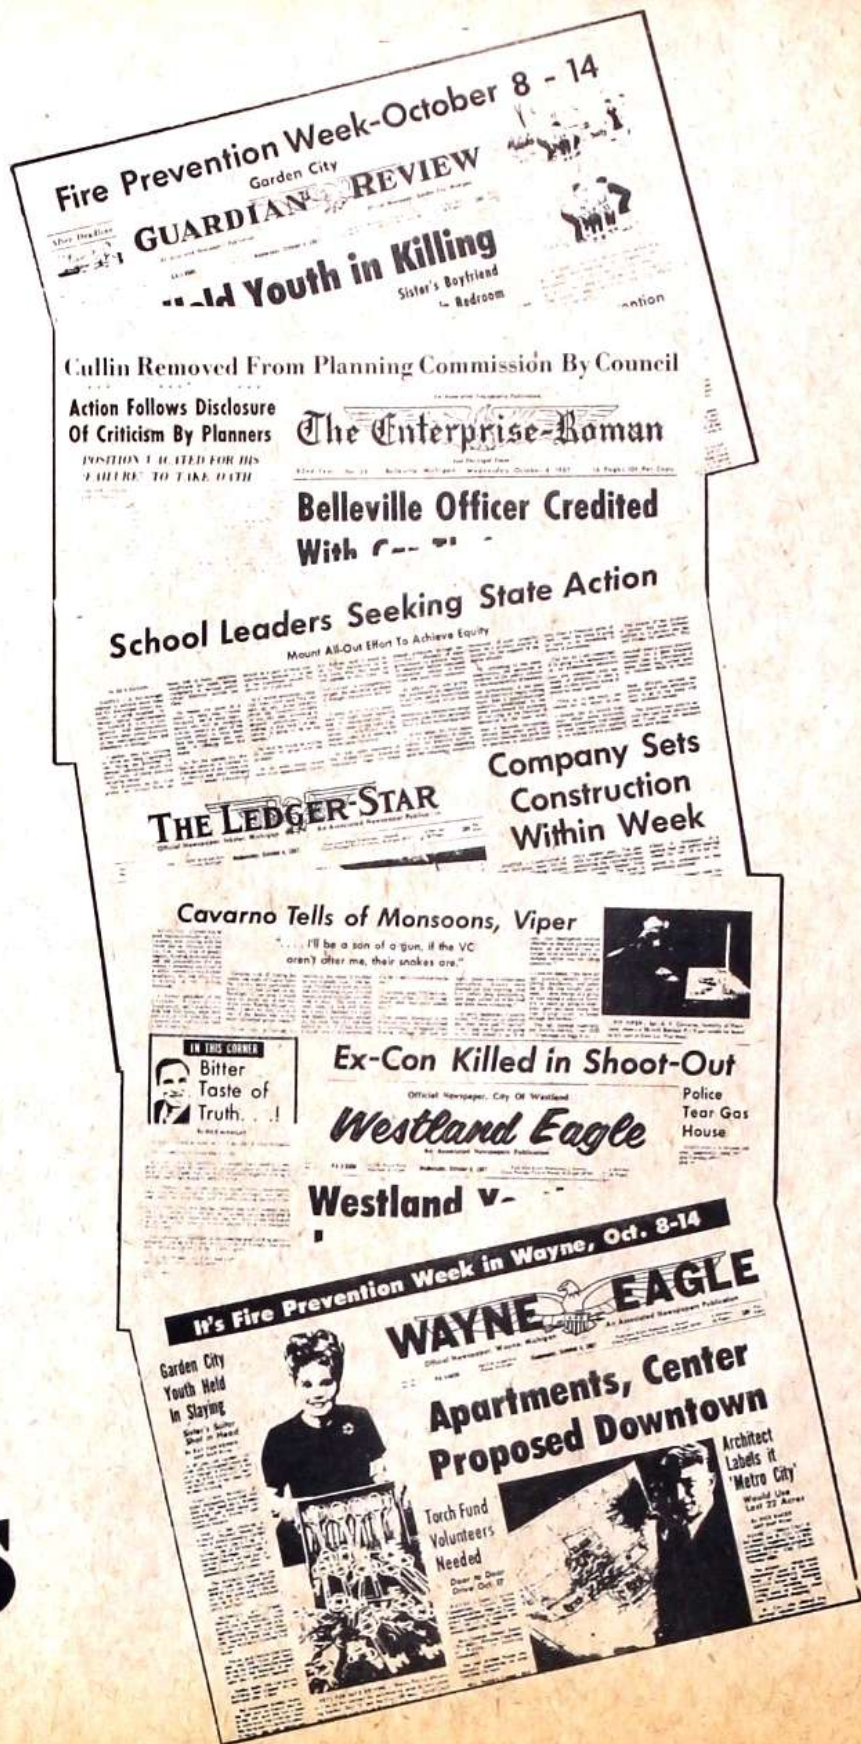

It means that ONLY in an Associated Newspaper can you find the official actions of the various governmental bodies in your community. Western Wayne County is on the move. . . it's a vigorous, progressive area. New zoning ordinances are being approved . . . planning commissions are making decisions that may affect you and your property . . . your city council or township board may pass special assessments. . . changes are being considered in tax procedures. . . election details are vital. It is important you know of these varied actions---many of them affect you and your neighbors. And remember---ONLY in an Associated Newspaper can you read the "Official Proceedings!"

TO US

This means the governmental unit responsible for selecting an official publication in each community has demonstrated deep respect for the Associated Newspapers by awarding them this designation. This has been true not just this year but for many years in most of Western Wayne County areas. We are genuinely appreciative for this expression of confidence!

Call Associated Today Parkway 1-4424

A TREASURE TROVE IN THE WANT ADS

Housing Activity Increases

New residential units permitted in Wayne County were up slightly for the first six-months of 1968 compared to the same period in 1967 according to figures just released by the Planning Division, Southeast Michigan Council of Governments.

This year, 4,354 units were authorized as against 4,324 in 1967 for a gain of 7 percent. Although the entire county registered a gain, it can be attributed to the City of Detroit which increased by 240 or 31.7 percent while the out-County area declined by 210 or 5.9 percent.

Four communities were responsible for almost two-thirds of all the construction. They include Detroit with 997, Livonia with 364, Taylor with 630, and Westland with 801.

In addition, three of them accounted for most of the multiples - Detroit had 860, Taylor had 410, and Westland had 605.

Wayne County General Hospital Now Using Helicopter Service

Wayne County General Hospital has introduced some front-line battle zone measures borrowed from the allied forces in Vietnam in coping with the serious injury accidents here in this area. A helicopter ambulance service, called "Helistop," now makes it possible for the person injured seriously in an accident to be rushed to the hospital by the whirly birds and treated in a specially-adapted emergency center by a "trauma team" of four surgeons and two interns.

Dr. William R. Olsen, Director of Surgery at Wayne County General, says the use of helicopters as ambulances in combination with the trauma service makes it possible to reduce the time "from injury to treatment" for the accident victim.

Dr. Olsen, while quick to point out the trauma team also handles emergency patients who arrive at the hospital by ambulance or by private vehicles, says the value of the speedy air transportation service along with the special work of the trauma team makes it possible to save lives that would almost certainly be lost otherwise.

THE TRAUMA team concept of emergency treatment for serious injury accident victims is not entirely new, Dr. Olsen points out. "Parkland General Hospital in Dallas (Texas) where President Kennedy was taken, and Lee Harvey Oswald in 1963 have the same trauma service to handle emergency patients," Dr. Olsen stated. "It is also in practice at Cook County General Hospital in Chicago," he added.

"We are the first hospital in Michigan to develop a trauma service team of surgeons," Dr. Olsen states. "We have numerous consultants on call 24 hours a day to help assist the trauma team. Our medical staff is completely integrated with University Hospital in Ann Arbor and when specialists need to be called in it can be done quickly."

The helicopter ambulances, which landed on the grass at Wayne County General until the Helistop, concrete landing pad was completed, can also quickly transport patients between hospitals for treatment as well as convey them from the scene of an accident to the emergency center.

Superior Ambulance Service owns the helicopters and maintains the air transportation service at a cost to the patients of $30 plus $1.50 per mile from the pick-up point to the hospital. Normal ambulance rates for emergencies are set at $28 plus $1 per mile.

Superior Ambulance reports service provided by their two helicopter ambulances also provides patients with the usual emergency equipment which can be put into use during transportation if needed, such as oxygen and cardiac equipment. They also have their personnel trained medical doctors for emergency procedures.

Dr. Olsen stated approval of the hospital's request for purchase of special X-ray equipment for the trauma service by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors will make it possible in the near future to add to the facilities now in use and available to the trauma team surgeons.

"This will make it possible," Dr. Olsen concluded, "to reduce even further the time necessary for treatment of patients from when they arrive at the hospital until they are ready for whatever medical treatment that may be required."

THE TRAUMA TEAM swings into action as soon as the helicopter touches down and has the patient on the way to the hospital's emergency room. Police can call for a helicopter ambulance from the scene of any accident when they think using one is practical.

ARRIVING AT THE HOSPITAL, the Superior Ambulance helicopter approaches for a landing on the Helistop just minutes after picking up an accident victim.

Ford Plans Development in Dearborn

DEARBORN — Ford Motor Company plans a multi-million-dollar real estate development on about 1,400 acres of company land in Dearborn, Mich., Henry Ford II, chairman of the board, has announced.

He said the company has several architect-planner and real estate economist firms under consideration and soon will select one of each to develop long-term recommendations on the best use of the land.

When the two firms are chosen, Ford said, they will be asked to "develop a plan that will be beneficial to the city of Dearborn and to Ford Motor Company." He added that it will be several months before the firms complete their preliminary studies and submit recommendations.

"From discussions with planners so far, the land appears adaptable to a wide range of uses that might include office buildings, shopping centers or apartment buildings," Ford said.

"WHATEVER THE recommendations, we expect to develop the land in a manner that is exceptionally attractive architecturally and that enhances both the appearance and the business potential of the city of Dearborn."

Orville L. Hubbard, mayor of Dearborn, met recently with Mr. Ford and other company officials to discuss the general plan for development of the property.

A large portion of the 1,400 acres is generally bounded by Ford Road, Greenfield and Michigan Avenues and Evergreen Road. Other tracts include one north of Ford Road and two south of Michigan Avenue.

The Ford Central Office Building and the Ford Motor

Credit Company Building, located at Michigan Avenue and Southfield Road, are included within the general boundaries of the property.

Ford Motor Company owns about 4,000 acres of land in Dearborn, 2,600 of which are used for manufacturing operations (including the Rouge area), research, engineering, design and office facilities and some held in reserve for future expansion.

The company has about 60,000 men and women employed in its Dearborn facilities.

Faust Asks Yes Vote On College Millage

WESTLAND — A "yes" vote on a 2½ mill levy for a county-wide Community College system has been urged by State Senator William Faust (D-13th District.)

Faust said the millage proposal would be submitted at the Nov. 5 election to all Wayne County voters except those residing in the existing Dearborn and Schoolcraft Community College District.

Projection indicates that this college will serve as many as 30,000 students within the next five years.

"I sincerely hope," Faust said, "that the voters will recognize the urgent educational needs for Wayne County. Young people and adults alike will find in the Community College an opportunity for upgrading and fulfillment. The millage is definitely an investment in a better society."
